The Honorable Thomas S. Foley
Speaker of the House of Representatives

Dear Mr. Speaker:

On January 29, 1990, the President submitted to the Congress his second special impoundment message for fiscal year 1990. This message reports two new deferrals and revises the amounts of four deferrals previously reported. We have reviewed these deferrals and found them to be in accordance with the Impoundment Control Act, 2 U.S.C. § 681, as amended.

Enclosure I provides specific information on three of the deferrals, which we believe will be useful to the Congress in its examination of the message. Enclosure II provides a list of the deferrals as reported by the President.

Sincerely yours,

Milton J. Socolar

Comptroller General of the United States

ENCLOSURE I

COMMENTS ON THE SECOND SPECIAL MESSEGE

FUNDS APPROPRIATED TO THE PRESIDENT:

D89-1A

International Security Assistance
Economic Support Fund
Amount Deferred: $2,069,078,500
11 X 1037 119/01037
110/11037

The amounts reported in the message are intended to convey the budgetary resources and deferred amounts of three separate accounts which constitute the Economic Support Fund. The latest apportionment statements for these accounts show total budgetary resources of $3,438,892,227 and not $6,450,718,500 as erroneously reflected in the message. According to OMB's latest cumulative report, submitted to the Congress on March 9, 1990, the amount deferred is $1,896,520,000 and not $2,069,078,500 as shown in the message.

D89-8

International Security Assistance
Foreign Military Financing
Amount Deferred: $4,156,642,055
110/1082

According to OMB's cumulative report, submitted to the Congress on March 9, 1990, $1,055,000,000 of the amount reported in this message as deferred has been released. The amount currently deferred is $3,101,642,055.

D90-9

International Security Assistance
International Military Education and Training
Amount Deferred: $23,293,000
1101081

According to OMB's cumulative report, submitted to the Congress on February 9, 1990, all budget authority in this account reported as deferred has been released.
